TOMCAR® and Nemaocolin Woodlands Resort Announce Creation of the “TOMCAR Tactical Training Center”

ROCHESTER HILLS, MI - TOMCAR Ltd. has announced that it has partnered with the Nemaocolin Woodlands Resort, located in Laurel Highlands, PA, to create the first TOMCAR Tactical Training Center in the United States.

The new TOMCAR Tactical Training Center will be officially unveiled during Nemaocolin's 2nd Annual Fall Festival held at the property on October 10, 2009.

The TOMCAR Tactical Training Center will provide resort guests with a unique and unmatched driving experience through a progression of three off-road courses designed to develop and enhance their driving skills. The Nemaocolin Woodlands Resort boasts more than 600 wooded acres with approximately 20 miles of terrain covered with every type of obstacle imaginable.

“We couldn't be happier with our new relationship with TOMCAR,” said Trey Matheu, Nemaocolin Woodlands Resort's General Manager, “After the first on-site demonstration, we knew the TOMCAR was the perfect vehicle for our off-road excursions. Enthusiasts will be amazed by the vehicle's capabilities, while first time off-roaders will be put at ease with just how easy the TOMCAR is to operate. Not to mention, they are just plain fun to drive.”

Matt McAlear, TOMCAR's Vice President of Global Sales and Marketing stated, “TOMCAR Excursions through the Tactical Training Center allow us to showcase the durability, safety, reliability and off-road driving comfort of the TOMCAR in an incredible, challenging environment. Nemaocolin Woodlands Resort is known for providing unforgettable guest experiences and we are honored to be partnering with them.”

The TOMCAR is a military grade, commercial high-performance vehicle that was purpose built for military application, later developed as a commercial and recreational vehicle constructed to go “ANYWHERE AND BACK™.” Some of the current industries that are utilizing TOMCAR's vehicles include: military and security sectors, mining, construction, agriculture and tourism.
